Policy Regarding Shareholder Communications with Directors

Shareholders may communicate directly with the Board of Directors by writing to:

Board of Directors

c/o The Secretary

Supernus, Inc.

9715 Key West Avenue

Rockville, MD 20850

The Secretary will forward such communications to the Board at or prior to the next meeting of the Board.

Shareholders wishing to communicate only with the independent directors, certain committees or an individual director should address their communications to such director(s), care of the Secretary. These communications will be handled by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary and forwarded to the applicable director(s) and/or committee(s) at or prior to the next meeting of such director(s).

The Board or the recipient directors will determine, in such group's sole discretion, the method by which any such communications will be reviewed and considered.
